

PhD Education Grant – 2022

(This Application form must be used for PhD/Doctoral study only, to be undertaken in the 2022 academic year)

The PhD Education Grant is available as a contribution towards course related costs.

The following criteria apply to all applications for a PhD Education Grant.

1. Applicants must be a verified registered member of the Raukawa Settlement Trust;
 - 1.1 who resides in NZ, or who normally resides in NZ, but has had to move overseas in order to complete their study (must still be a NZ citizen);
 - 1.2 and who will be studying at a recognised tertiary education institution or recognised provider in NZ or overseas.
2. Preference will be given to topics of study which will assist with the achievement of RST Vision and Goals, however all eligible applicants will be considered.
3. Applicants are only eligible for PhD Education grants for three years at full time doctoral level (or six years at part time doctoral level).
4. The tenure of each PhD grant is one academic year only.
5. Information requirements in each year for full time study are:
 - a) For year one: Supply a completed application form, verification of enrolment from tertiary institution and detailed research proposal, signed and dated by the Doctoral supervisor (including the official stamp of the institution) and course related costs report.
 - b) For year two: a signed and dated progress report from the doctoral supervisor, which indicates expected milestones and targets are being met and a course related costs report.
 - If this is the first time applying in their second year they must also provide step 'a'
 - c) For year three: a signed and dated progress report from the doctoral supervisor, which indicates expected milestones and targets are being met and a course related costs report.
 - If this is the first time applying in their Third year they must also provide step 'a'
6. As a condition of any final year funding, successful applicants will be required to submit a copy of their final thesis to RCT, and may be asked to present their thesis to the Board of Trustees.
7. If any applicant is unable to complete or actually start their PhD study due to funding or any other reason, the applicant must repay the grant received from RCT to RCT. This can be organised by contacting the Uri Grants Administrator on 0800 Raukawa (0800 728 5292).
8. If an applicant fails to achieve the required milestones and targets as approved in their research proposal, any future applications would be more carefully considered and may be declined.
9. All decisions will be made by the Education Grant Sub-committee, and are final. No disputes or correspondence will be entered into regarding any of these decisions.

10. Applications for the PhD Education Grant - 2022 will open on 30th of November 2021, close on the 28th of February 2022, and be considered in March 2022
